

A Prayer for a Loved One in Prison

Father, in the Name of Jesus, I thank You that You love me, and You love _____ (insert your loved one's name) who is serving time in prison. Lord, I thank You for the power of forgiveness—that it wipes away sin, sets people free, and makes all things new. I ask right now that You would soften the heart of _____ (insert your loved one's name), and cause him/her to repent and receive Your forgiveness in Jesus' Name. Let the power of the Holy Spirit wash over him/her right now at this moment, causing all fear or bitterness to leave.

God, I thank You that You are the great Comforter. I ask that You send supernatural comfort and strength to _____ (insert your loved one's name), now.

Lord, I know there is violence within the walls of many prisons, but I pray supernatural protection all around _____ (insert your loved one's name). I send angels to protect him/her right now.

Father, I pray for a revival in the correctional facility where _____ (insert your loved one's name), is and ask that the love of Jesus would permeate the atmosphere, break bondages, and set people free. Send laborers to bring Your Spirit and Your truth, and let the Word of God become real to them like never before.

In the Name of Jesus, I cast the care of _____ (insert your loved one's name), on You and rest in the assurance that You are working in response to my prayers, even now.

I thank You that Your Word does not return void, and therefore, my words spoken in line with Your Word will never fail to accomplish what they set out to do. I call _____ (insert your loved one's name), forgiven, redeemed, healed, delivered, and set free!

In Jesus' Name. Amen.

When you pray this prayer over your friend or family member who is incarcerated, expect to see results! There is nothing more powerful and impactful in the lives of prisoners than intercessory prayer based on the Word of God. Your prayers have power!